Description of Project

As a group you need to define the project. This can be directly from the proposal or you as a group could redefine the project based on your group's discussions (remember that you have chosen this project based on the proposal)

Key Project Outcomes:

This is what you as a group will be doing/working towards. These need to be achievable small steps in the production of the final product. These include any research, model making and designing steps. You will not be able to jump straight to building your final product.
